Hate Crime and Third Party Reporting

If you have been targeted because of your disability, race, religion, sexual orientation or transgender identity, or you are aware of someone else being targeted, we want you to report it. Reporting hate crime is important. If you report it we can deal with it, we can try to stop the same thing happening to someone else and together we can work to stop hate in Scotland.

You can report a hate crime:

- By Telephone 999 (emergency) 101 (non-emergency)
- In person at any Police station
- By completing a Hate Crime Reporting Form <https://www.scotland.police.uk/secureforms/c3/>
- At a Third (3rd) Party Reporting Centre

Where you see this sign, you can report a Hate Crime. Sometimes, victims and witnesses of Hate Crime do not feel comfortable reporting it directly to the Police. They may be more comfortable reporting it to someone they know. To help people report Hate Crimes, Police Scotland works with many partner organisations who are 3rd Party Reporting Centres. These partners have been trained to help people to report hate crime to the police and can make the report for them.
